Taisha Moore

Taisha Renee Moore is a Vice President and KeyCenter Manager for KeyBank.

In her day to day activities Taisha is responsible for KeyCenter operations where she provides sales and service leadership within the Branch. She effectively and efficiently makes sure clients' needs are met, employees are satisfied, and that the KeyCenters final goals are met and exceeded. She has been with KeyBank since February 1993 and has proven herself as a fearless leader with 15 years as a top performer. She is an awesome example of employee dedication with numerous awards and recognition. She is not only responsible for internal operations but she is a visible community leader as well.

In addition to her work at KeyBank, Taisha is a devoted youth leader at her church. She has helped youth all over the city to find jobs, learn to manage their money, and be all they could possibly be regardless of the circumstances. She was raised in inner-city Seattle and understands the importance of giving back to her community – the same community that helped to shape her into the woman she is today. In addition to her work with TAF, she is an active member of BNI, Key4Women, Renton Chamber of Commerce, the Professional Women of Color Network and many more...
