John Chen

John Chen has 10 years of experience with Microsoft, shipping 8 world-class products including the world's fastest selling client-server application, Microsoft Exchange, which sold over 100 million client licenses and earned him 2 US Patents.

Currently, as the energetic CEO of PLAYTIME Inc., John infuses corporate team building and leadership skills through technology and adventure. Their latest offering is Geoteaming™, a GPS-Powered Team Building event where you go for a high-tech treasure hunt using GPS, Pocket PCs, Digital Cameras and 2-way radios to find hidden items. Using his unique Competitive-Collaborative Design, Geoteaming™ is not only about team building, but about team-to-team building as teams compete for high-score while collaborating to achieve a company goal. Through this process, John's clients learn how to balance the paradox of competition and collaboration through his 7 Keys for Cross Team Collaboration.

John and Playtime Inc. have worked with over 80 Fortune 500 clients in over 450 events around the world including Barcelona, France, Taiwan and Shanghai to provide value through team building skills. Clients have given rave reviews and produced tremendous value helping John to earn the Puget Sound Business Journal's Top 40 Entrepreneur Under The Age of 40, the Better Business Bureau's Innovative Practices Award and the #4 Fastest Growing Minority Business.

John volunteers his time and resources to many innovative charities focusing on the environment and children as well as being an active member of his community. John is a member of the Association for Experiential Education, Employee Service Management, The Rainier Club, Seattle's Chamber of Commerce, The Better Business Bureau and resides in Seattle, WA.
