

Jennifer Johnson TechStart Program Manager

Jenn came to TAF as the TechStart Program Coordinator in June 2008. She received her BS in Education from Miami University (Ohio) and taught 8th grade English at an inner-city school in Covington, Kentucky. From there she became a marketing associate for scholarly books at The University of Chicago Press, and later an independent musician. Jenn moved to Seattle in April 2008 and is thrilled to have found TAF.

Job Description:

As TechStart Program Manager, Jenn is responsible for teacher management, curriculum coordination, student recruitment and enrollment, professional development, family and school communications, and partnerships.
