Jill Hull Dziko Co-Founder, Vice President

Jill left TAF on February 26, 1998, to be a full-time mom to her daughter Elise Patricia who was born March 30, 1998. We're all very happy for Jill and very grateful that we were able to have her involved in TAF since its inception. Of course, we'll have Elise banging on the computer keyboard before you know it!

Jill was born and raised in Utah. There she worked with developmentally and physically disabled children. She also worked in the Salt Lake Public Schools with juvenile delinquents. She attended the University of Utah and received a BA in Political Science. After receiving her BA she moved to Seattle to attend the University of Washington School of Social Work.

Upon graduating with her MSW, Jill began working for Seattle Mental Health. Initially, she worked as a therapist and case manager for developmentally disabled/mentally ill adults; however, she decided to continue her work with children and began working as a therapist for middle school aged children in several Seattle Public Schools.

Jill ended her stay at Seattle Mental Health in December 1996 and became a full-time staff member at TAF in January of 1997.

Job Description:

Jill is one of TAF's co-founders and its previous Youth Programs Director.
