

Biography

Lynda Joko Volunteer Coordinator

Lynda has been a passionate supporter of the work at TAF for many years, and after being a volunteer for a year, she joined the staff in January 2010. Her experience includes 14 years of non-profit volunteer management.

Lynda is a native of Los Angeles and a 4th generation Californian/Japanese American. She moved to Seattle in 1995 to raise our two young children. In 1997, she and a friend formed "Seattle Children's Peace Camp" and for the past 10 years, she has been on the "From Hiroshima to Hope" organizing committee. She enjoys community organizing/social justice/race activism work, yoga, walking, gardening, cooking and socializing with friends.

Job Description:

As Volunteer Coordinator, Lynda is responsible for recruitment, screening, training, support, supervision and appreciation of 40-50 volunteers who support TAF programs and operations. The majority of these volunteers are classroom assistants for the TechStart after-school program.
