

Biography

Troy Hilton

Educational Technology Program Manager

Troy started as a volunteer in the 1999-2000 academic year and just couldn't get enough. He loves the kids, who make him realize what is really important: Work hard but don't forget to play.

Troy is a Seattle native who graduated from Evergreen State College. He earned a Master's of Science in Human Centered Design & Engineering (HCDE) from the University of Washington. He enjoys spending as much time as possible with his wife Tracey, his family, friends and pets. He has taken to listening to vinyl recordings to even out the amount of time he spends enveloped in technology.

Job Description:

Troy is responsible for planning and implementation of technology for the network of TAF Academies. Building a strong and agile technology infrastructure, and creating training so our students and teachers can leverage technology to be high level lifelong learners.
